LATINX HERITAGE MONTH

WORKSHOP PRESENTATION

“Methods for Analyzing and Interpreting Latinx and Black Art:
A Workshop on Seeing and Doing Minoritarian Arts Practice”

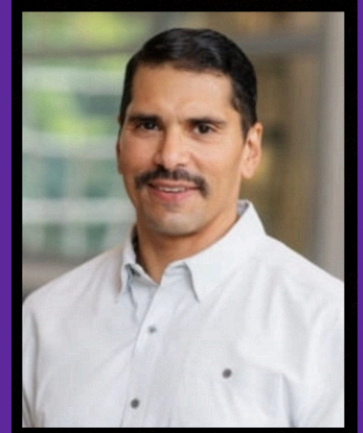

Prof. Israel Reyes (Dartmouth College)
and
Prof. Lázaro Lima (Hunter College)

October 11, 2022

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

Center for Puerto Rican
Studies Conference Room
Hunter East / Room 1442
(68th & Lexington Ave.)

What is specific and culturally constitutive about Latinx and Black art? What are the tools and analytic methods that can best allow us to identify, engage with and “see” minoritarian art? In this workshop Professors Reyes and Lima will present and discuss ways of seeing and interpreting Black and Latinx Art.

Sponsored by the Department of Africana, Puerto Rican and Latino Studies
